mission

Mission: Our mission is to live the Good News of Jesus and witness to the presence of God as we enter into the lives and needs of people around the world, especially those who are poor. We strive to be a source of new life, new meaning and new hope.

Sister Margaret Sue Broker teaches at Sacred Heart School in Mississippi

The School Sisters of St. Francis are an international community of Catholic sisters founded in 1874. We now have sisters, associates, staff, donors, and volunteers actively working to address the needs of those who are poor and marginalized by society.

Justice: School Sisters of St. Francis are alive with the call of the Gospel, uniting with others to build a just and peaceful world.

The ministries of the School Sisters of St. Francis have evolved to serve the needs of the times since our founding. Today, these ministries stretch across the globe – from the United States to Europe, Latin America, North India and South India – and vary greatly based on the needs of the local people, especially those who are poor, women and children.
